AAOIFI Financial Accounting Standard (FAS) 42 "Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Takaful Institutions" is set out in paragraphs 01-15. All the paragraphs have equal authority. This standard should be read in the context of its objective and the AAOIFI Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting as endorsed by AAOIFI. This standard shall be read in conjunction with the requirements of "Part 1: Applicable on all institutions" of FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements" and FAS 43 "Accounting for Takaful: Recognition and Measurement".

All AAOIFI FASs shall be read in conjunction with the definitions, Shari'ah principles and rules and key considerations provided by AAOIFI Shari'ah Standards (SSs). This standard shall be read particularly in conjunction with SS 26 "Islamic Insurance" and SS 41 "Islamic Reinsurance".

Preface

- PR1 AAOIFI has previously issued four specific Financial Accounting Standards (FASs) applicable to Islamic insurance / Takaful between the years 1999 to 2003. The Takaful industry, during the last two decades, has developed significantly along with considerable enhancement to the regulatory environment. Concurrently, other international accounting standard-setting bodies completed multiple projects related to insurance accounting. The then AAOIFI Accounting and Auditing Standards Board initiated a revision project for AAOIFI FASs on Takaful in 2013.
- PR2 The work was paused in 2016 by the newly formed AAOIFI Accounting Board (AAB / the board) because Takaful regulations were being enhanced in many jurisdictions, and the projects by global accounting standard-setting bodies related to insurance accounting were nearing completion. The board also agreed that the ongoing revision of the AAOIFI Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting and FAS 1 “General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements” should have priority as certain parts and terminologies will be used by later standards.
- PR3 AAB initiated a comprehensive revision project for AAOIFI FASs on Takaful in 2018 under the recommendation of the “AAOIFI Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) review and revision project”.
- PR4 This revised AAOIFI FAS supersedes the existing FAS 12 “General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Islamic Insurance Companies” and is the first part of the deliverables of the Takaful project. The second part of the project, FAS 43 “Accounting for Takaful: Recognition and Measurement” (which is simultaneously being issued) covers the specific requirements for accounting for Takaful that will replace the other three AAOIFI FASs on Takaful accounting.

Introduction

Overview

- IN1 This standard sets out the principles for the presentation and disclosure for the financial statements of Takaful institutions. It aims to ensure that the Takaful institutions faithfully present the information related to these arrangements to the relevant stakeholders as per the contractual relationship between the parties and the business model of the Takaful business in line with the Shari'ah principles and rules.
- IN2 This standard improves the presentation and disclosure requirements, in line with the global best practices, and supersedes the existing FAS 12 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Islamic Insurance Companies".
- IN3 This standard prescribes the set of financial statements that the institutions should periodically publish to satisfy the common information needs of users of financial statements. This standard also establishes the general principles for the presentation of information and adequately reflecting the rights and obligations of different stakeholders within Takaful business model. It stipulates the information that should be disclosed in the financial statements of Takaful institutions to achieve the objectives of accounting and financial reporting.
- IN4 The standard shall be accompanied by, and read in conjunction with, FAS 43 "Accounting for Takaful: Recognition and Measurement", which covers the significant aspects of accounting for Takaful products.

Rationale for issuing this standard

- IN5 AAOIFI issued the existing four standards on Takaful accounting and financial reporting about two decades back. The Takaful industry, the relevant regulations and the accounting best practices for the insurance sector have significantly developed and enhanced since then. AAOIFI has recently completed the project of revision of the AAOIFI Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting, which standardises the fundamental accounting concepts applicable to various institutions and instruments. Consequently, it was considered essential to revise the standards for accounting and financial reporting for Takaful institutions.

Significant changes from the previous standard

- IN6 This standard (FAS 42 "Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Takaful Institutions") brings significant changes from its predecessor standard (FAS 12 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Islamic Insurance Companies"), inter-alia, in the following aspects:
- a. it is aligned with the AAOIFI Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting (Revised 2020);
 - b. the presentation and disclosure in the standard have been better aligned with the Shari'ah principles and rules relating to Takaful, whereby the Takaful operator is distinct from the participants' funds (including participants' Takaful fund (PTF) and participants' investment fund (PIF));

- c. the PTF and PIF are considered to be off-balance-sheet assets under management, therefore, separate from the Takaful operator;
- d. statements for the managed PTF and the managed PIF have been introduced, some of which were not part of the earlier FAS, including separate statements for the financial position and financial activities of the managed PTF;
- e. disclosures for Zakah, charity and Qard funds have been relocated to the notes to the financial statements in line with FAS 1 “General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements”;
- f. new definitions for Takaful, Takaful institution, Takaful operator, PIF and the PTF have been introduced; and
- g. the standard has been aligned with the requirements of FAS 1 “General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements”.

AAOIFI Financial Accounting Standard 42

Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Takaful Institutions

Objective of the standard

1. The objective of this standard is to set out the overall requirements for the presentation of financial statements, the minimum requirement for the contents of and disclosures in the financial statements and a recommended structure of financial statements that facilitates fair presentation in line with Shari'ah principles and rules for Takaful institutions.

Scope

2. This standard applies to all Takaful institutions regardless of their legal form or size, including Takaful window operations¹.
3. This standard applies to the Takaful institutions while presenting consolidated financial statements and stand-alone or separate financial statements.
4. This standard does not apply to the structure and contents of condensed or summarised financial reports prepared for interim financial reporting².
5. This standard shall be read in conjunction with the requirements of "Part 1: Applicable on all institutions" of FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements", whereby the provisions of this standard shall be considered in addition to the requirements prescribed therein about the general presentation and disclosures in the financial statements of all Islamic financial institutions. However, the provisions of this standard shall apply in case of a conflict between the requirements of the two standards.

Definitions

6. For the purpose of interpreting and applying this standard, the following short definitions are relevant:
 - a. Owners' equity – is the residual interest in the assets of the institution after deducting all the liabilities and the quasi-equity [Explanation: In the context of Takaful institutions, it represents only the equity related to Takaful operator / shareholders];
 - b. Participants' (also referred to as policyholders') investment fund (PIF) – is the fund managed by the Takaful institution on behalf of participants, collectively, with the objective of making investments and earning returns thereon, based on Mudaraba or Al-Wakala Bi Al-Istithmar (investment agency);
 - c. Participants' (also referred to as policyholders') Takaful fund (PTF) – is the fund created by (or on behalf of) the participants with the objective to share risk and whose management has been undertaken by the Takaful institution. The fund is entitled to the contributions and returns (if any), subject to direct expenses, provisions and reserves related to the Takaful operations and the surplus (or deficit) arising thereon;

² FAS 41 "Interim Financial Reporting"

- d. Qard [also referred to as Qard Hasan] – is an interest-free loan intended to allow the borrower to use the loaned funds, with or without prescribing a period of time, with the understanding that the same amount of the loaned funds (in the original nature of funds e.g., same currency) would be repaid when due or when demanded (in case the period is not prescribed) [Explanation: In the specific context of this standard, it refers to the interest-free loan extended by the Takaful operator to the PTF to temporarily finance the funding deficit in the PTF];
- e. Reinsurance – is a “conventional” contract according to which an insurance company cedes (transfers) part of the risks of its insurance commitments to a reinsurance company. The insurance company, therefore, undertakes to pay to the reinsurance company part of the insurance premium paid by the policyholders, against the commitment of the reinsurance company to bear part of the claims as per an agreement between the two parties;
- f. Re-Takaful – refers to the arrangement among Takaful institutions, on behalf of their respective PTFs under management, to devise a mechanism for the avoidance of part of the risks which the PTFs may encounter. On the basis of such arrangement, a re-Takaful PTF, which has a distinct juristic personality and independent financial liability, is formed through making contributions out of the PTFs as a part of the contributions paid by their respective participants on the basis of Tabarru. The re-Takaful PTF, thus formed, assumes the task of covering part of the risks encountered by the PTFs. [Explanation: Re-Takaful is the Shari’ah compliant alternative to the conventional reinsurance, having the distinctive characteristic of being based on the same principles of Takaful and mutuality as indicated in SS 26 “Islamic Insurance” and SS 41 “Islamic Reinsurance”, instead of exchange of reinsurance premiums. The need for re-Takaful may arise in respect of a Takaful institution due to lack of sufficient capacity to take risks or because of regulatory requirements of risk sharing with regard to the magnitude of the risk in question.] [Note: For the purpose of this standard, the term re-Takaful, wherever the context suggests may include “conventional” reinsurance in line with the prevailing practices of the Takaful institution in case of dire need (subject to Shari’ah principles and rules) with adequate disclosures in respect of the same];
- g. Takaful³ – is a process of arrangement among a group of persons (commonly referred to as participants) to handle the losses resulting from specific risks to which all of them are vulnerable. A process, thus initiated, involves payment of contributions as donations, and leads to the establishment of a Takaful fund that enjoys the status of a legal entity (from Shari’ah perspective) and has independent financial liability. The resources of this fund are used to indemnify any participant who encounters injury, subject to a specific set of rules and a given process of documentation. The fund is managed by either a select group of participants, or a joint stock company that manages the Takaful operations and invests the assets of the fund, for an agreed fee;

³ Definition adapted from SS 26 “Islamic Insurance”

- h. Takaful institution – is an entity possessing the license of practicing Takaful (at times referred to as Islamic insurance) business in line with the requirements of Shari’ah principles and rules. The institution undertakes its operation based on a remunerated Wakala (agency) contract. In addition to managing the Takaful operations, the institution also assumes the responsibility of investing the assets of the fund through Mudaraba or investment agency [Explanation: For the purpose of this standard, a Takaful institution includes a Takaful window operation⁴. The notion “Takaful institution”, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes the Takaful operator and the participants’ funds]; and
- i. Takaful operator – in the specific context of this standard, represents the function of the Takaful institution whereby it manages the PTF and the PIF, and from an accounting perspective, represents the residual part of the Takaful institution duly owned by and representing the equity, rights and obligations of the shareholders (or the principal owners) of the Takaful institution, excluding the PTF and PIF.

Appendix C: Basis for conclusions

The reason for the AAOIFI FASs on Takaful revision project

- BC1 AAOIFI Financial Accounting Standards (FASs) FASs on Takaful were issued in the past to prescribe the accounting treatments that were in line with the true nature of Takaful prescribed AAOIFI Shari'ah Standards. These include four specific standards applicable to Takaful accounting and financial reporting i.e., FAS 12 "General Presentation and Disclosure in the Financial Statements of Islamic Insurance Companies", FAS 13 "Disclosure of Bases for Determining and Allocating Surplus or Deficit in Islamic Insurance Companies", FAS 15 "Provisions and Reserves in Islamic Insurance Companies" and FAS 19 "Contributions in Islamic Insurance Companies" issued between the years 1999 to 2003.
- BC2 The AAOIFI Accounting Board (AAB / the board) monitored the developments in the Takaful and insurance industry and the considerable changes to the regulatory environment over the years, simultaneously taking account of the significant developments being made to the accounting best practices in the conventional insurance sector.
- BC3 The board considered the question whether Takaful products may be faithfully reported by applying the recently issued global accounting standards on insurance, keeping in mind the specific Shari'ah implications and the business model. The board noted that conventional insurance is a risk trading business, whereas Takaful is based on risk sharing and Tabarru, whereby portions of contributions received from participants are treated as a donation into a common pool. The board concluded that due to the specific nature of Takaful, the accounting for conventional insurance was not suitable.
- BC4 The AAOIFI strategy for development of financial accounting standards is to keep the AAOIFI FASs as close as possible to the global accounting standards, duly addressing the specific Shari'ah requirements. The board decided to use the same principle for revision of AAOIFI FASs on Takaful as the specific structure of Takaful is not catered to by the global standard setters.
- BC5 The board has recently completed the project of revision of the "AAOIFI Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting" and FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosure in the Financial Statements" where the fundamental accounting concepts applicable to various institutions and instruments have been standardised. Consequent to the revisions, it was considered essential to revise the standards for accounting and financial reporting for Takaful institutions, as well.

The AAOIFI FAS on Takaful revision project output

- BC6 The board agreed that the output of the Takaful project would be in the form of two exposure drafts, one related to the presentation and disclosure, and the other prescribing accounting treatments (recognition and measurement) of Takaful arrangements. As the scope of the FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements" is enhanced to include all institutions, whether offering banking services or otherwise, the board decided not to duplicate the presentation and disclosure requirements that are already available in "Part 1: Applicable on all institutions" of FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements" in this standard. Accordingly, this standard shall be read in conjunction with the requirements of FAS 1 "General Presentation and Disclosures in the Financial Statements".

Takaful and Islamic insurance

- BC7 The board considered using the terms “Takaful” or “Islamic insurance” as Takaful is also commonly referred to as Islamic insurance. The previous AAOIFI FASs referred to both the terms interchangeably and the same are reflected in the AAOIFI Shari’ah Standards (SS) on Takaful. In order to convey the true nature of the product and to standardise the terminology, the board concluded that the revised AAOIFI FASs shall use the term “Takaful institutions” and the term “Islamic insurance” would not be applied. Similarly, the commonly used term “premium” is to be abandoned and “contributions from participants” is to be used instead. This distinction was agreed to be made in order to clearly distinguish Takaful in line with AAOIFI SSs from other models.

Takaful Institution and its operations

- BC8 The board deliberated on the definition, structure and form of a Takaful institution, Takaful operator and the different funds. It was agreed that adequate and comprehensive definitions which were not provided for in the previous AAOIFI FASs such as Takaful, Takaful institution, Takaful operator, participants’ (also referred to as policyholders’) investment fund (PIF), and the participants’ (also referred to as policyholders’) Takaful fund (PTF) are to be introduced.
- BC9 There are various models of Takaful prevalent in different jurisdictions. These primarily are based on Wakala Bi-Al Istithmar (investment agency), Mudaraba or a combination of both. In some cases, the policyholder is considered to be shareholders, and a Takaful operator runs the business on their behalf. In others, the legal framework does not allow this arrangement and the Takaful operator work must be established as separate entity on the basis of Mudaraba or Wakala. The board considered four of the most common models of Takaful used globally and decided to develop the standard on the Wakala model and Wakala-Waqf model as both are accepted by AAOIFI SS, whereas the Mudaraba model and cooperative model are not acceptable. A structure of Takaful has also been provided in FAS 43 "Accounting for Takaful: Recognition and Measurement" has been referred to in this standard.

Accounting for the managed Takaful funds

- BC10 The board agreed that the accounting for Takaful funds should be distinct from the Takaful operator.
- BC11 The PTF may be considered to be a virtual entity, like a virtual waqf entity or virtual sukuk entity. In most cases, the PTF is managed on behalf of others in a fiduciary capacity, but not controlled by the Takaful operator. The PTF is entitled to the contributions received from the participants and the related returns, provisions and reserves relating to the Takaful business, and the resultant surplus or deficit. The fund bears all direct expenses pertaining to management of the Takaful operations.
- BC12 The relationship between the Takaful operator and the Takaful funds usually takes the form of a principal and agent relationship. Such relationships are required to be presented in line with FAS 31 “Investment Agency (Al-Wakala Bi Al-Istithmar)” as off-balance-sheet assets under management. The board considered that although the Takaful operator has power, such power is exercisable in a fiduciary capacity as an agent only, and in its nature, does not result in variable returns to the operator itself. The board also agreed the risks and rewards with regard to the Takaful operations does not lie with the operator. The Takaful operator may be eligible to receive performance incentives in the capacity of the agent, being in a fiduciary capacity and these cannot be considered as variable returns as the Takaful operator is not exposed to risk of sharing a loss. It was concluded that such funds are considered to be off-balance-sheet assets under management, and therefore distinct from the Takaful operator.

- BC13 It was also considered that a Takaful operator is not entitled to any surplus arising in the PTF. Where the PTF incurs a deficit, the Takaful operator may be obligated to temporarily support it through a Qard Hasan. The board agreed that the Qard Hasan, by its very nature, is to be paid back to the Takaful operator, therefore it does not tantamount to entitlement of variable returns.

Windows

- BC14 The board discussed that products offered through the Takaful window are principally different to conventional insurance products, therefore the contributions received by the Takaful fund cannot be presented as addition to the line item relating to premiums (collected in conventional insurance), during consolidation. It was agreed to prescribe requirement for a set of financial statements for the Takaful window separately, and to take the net figures only to the consolidated accounts.

Definitions

- BC15 The board observed that the global standard setters are using new terms related to insurance such as CSM (contractual service margin), risk adjustment, fulfilment cash flow etc. It was agreed that unless a clear Shari'ah objection is present, the same or similar terms may be used by AAOIFI standards to foster familiarity with the contents of the financial statements.
- BC16 The matter to use the term "participant" or "policyholder" was debated at the board. Members observed that the term "participant" is indicative of investment fund accounting therefore not suitable. The board noted that both terms "participant" and "policyholders", were used interchangeably in AAOIFI SS. The board agreed that it must be made clear in the mind of a reader that Takaful is different than a "policy" in conventional insurance, therefore, the term "participant" would be more suitable than the conventional term "policyholder".

Minimum components of the financial statements of a Takaful institution

- BC17 Family Takaful and general Takaful are significantly different, and many countries do not allow a single company to engage in both. However, one parent company may control both the family and general Takaful operations, or a family Takaful company may have a general Takaful as a subsidiary or vice versa. In such situations, the fund related to risk sharing is combined, however, issues would arise if consolidation were performed of the Takaful fund surplus with deficit in the other fund. Considering these factors, the board concluded that it may be beneficial for users if the two statements of financial activities of the managed policyholders Takaful funds are presented separately.
